BALL COAT OF ARMS

The Ball Coat of Arms illustrated was brought over by Col. William Ball, and a painting on parchment is still extant, with the colors but little faded. Arms: Argent, a lion passant, sable; on a chief of the second, three mullets of the first. Crest: Out of the clouds proper, a demi-lion, rampant, sable, powdered with estoiles, argent, holding a globe, or. Motto: Coelum Tueri-"Look upward". This coat of Arms was granted 1613 to the family of Kent, Cheshire, and Northampton. The Arms of the Balls of New England are the same, but the crest is a stag trippant; the Motto, "Semper Cavelo", meaning "Always be Cautious". (Copied from: COLONIAL FAMILIES OF AMERICA --- Smith. Since this volume was first printed we have learned that the children of John Ball 1st listed on page 2 are partially erroneous, due to the fact that Beegher mistook the name "Ralls" in the Overwhartons Parish Register for "Balls".

Below is an abstract of a certified copy of John Balls will was destroyed among other thingsxx Stafford County records. The will was recorded in Will Bk K (1721-1730), Page 25.

Will written Aug 14, 1722; probated after he died (Nov 14, 1722 was date of probate). Wife Winifred; children: Moses, James, John, George, Mary, Dinah, Martha and Ann. Etx Winifred Ball who was to be assisted by Simon Peirson (Capt) Wit:; Gabriel Adams, James Davis, Alice Boyston, Margaret Faroll.

On page 7 we failed to explain in the original manuscript the reason for the omission of the descendants of the Balls who settled at Balls Bridge in Lee County, Va. Mr William Wl Hoskins 2432 Fairfield Ave Bluefield, Va (W. Va) who has done extensive research on all Ball lines of South west Va is busy collecting and compiling records on the Ball families of western Lee County Va and Bell County, Ky which will probably be ready for publication in 1962 or 1963.

on page 10 in the 5th paragraph appeared a birth record from Moses Balls bible giving the name of Priscylla Lawrence. Later records have revealed that after the death of John Ball #1 Winifred was remarried to Benjamin Lawrence. Her dau, Priscylla was a half sister of Moses Ball

FOREWORD

Who was the immigrant ancestor?

There are many descendants of Moses and John Ball who insist that they are relatives of Mary (Ball) Washington, the mother of George Washington.

We know from careful research that the great grandfather of General Washington (Col. William Ball) has Ball descendants only through his son, William. After searching these down through five or six generations with a fine-toothed comb, so to speak, we have found no place to "insert" John Ball of Stafford, or Moses Ball of Fairfax.

It is quite probable, though, that John Ball, father of Moses (7), was descended from a brother of Col. William Ball (in which case Moses and Mary Washington would have been so-called "second cousins"). C.W. Stetson, author of FOUR-MILE RUN LAND GRANTS, expressed the belief that John Ball may have come from New Jersey via Maryland. He believed him to have been a descendant of Alling (or Allen) Ball, who settled in New Haven, Conn., and whose son, Edward Ball, was one of the founders of Newark, N.J. Even though Edward and Abigail (Blatchely) Ball had sons named: Joseph, Caleb, Thomas, and Moses, there is no established proof that John of Stafford belonged in that family.

According to a manuscript borrowed by a genealogist from the Institute of American Genealogy (Chicago) a few years ago: "William Ball of Wiltshire, England, had six sons who came to America on the Ship, Planter, in April, 1635. They were: (1) Alling Ball, who settled at New Haven, Conn.; (2) Francis Ball, at Springfield, Mass.; (3) William Ball, in St. Mary's Parish; Lancaster Co., Va.*; (4) John Ball, in Mass.; (5) Samuel Ball, untraced; (6) Richard Ball , untraced."

* William Ball, of course, was the great grandfather of Gen. Washington. His son, Joseph Ball, Mary's father, had no children who retained the name Ball, except a son, who remained in London, and had only three daughters.

 Samuel Ball supposedly settled at Coming-tree (or Cumming-tree), in the Carolinas, probably what is now South Carolina.

 There are some descendants of John Ball who believe that he was a son of one Richard Ball who married Elizabeth Lynton (dau. of Moses Lynton, Sr.) of Norfolk Co., Va., and who later moved to Stafford Co., Va. where he died. Since Stafford County records are not in tact for that period of time, this is difficult to prove. Thus far we can only give this possibility as a "theory" rather than a fact. We have no authority by which to accept or deny the claim. However, if this were true, it appears unusual that neither John nor Moses were known to have named children Richard or Elizabeth.

John Ball, Jr., son of No. 1 is believed by Stetson to have been the millwright who restored an old mill for Gen. Washington on Dogue Run. Moses Ball owned an oblong farm of ninety-one acres, (more or less) that is recorded in NORTHERN NECK LAND GRANTS, and signed by Lord Fairfax. The estate joined that of General Washington. Moses was mentioned at least twice in Washington's diary. He was about fifteen years older than the General, and evidently had no Revolutionary service, but his oldest son, (Ensign John Ball) and Lt. James Ball, Moses' younger brother, were Revolutionary officers. (See records of Land Bounty Case).

In conclusion, there is strong evidence of a relationship. The immigrant ancestors were quite likely brothers. However, the real proof, if in existance, lies in seventeenth century records on the other side of the Atlantic.

P R E F A C E

In 1933 Mr. Palmer R. Ball and Mrs. Nancy (Ball) Surface, of Wise County, Virginia, published a brief genealogy of the descendants of Moses Ball of Fairfax County, Virginia. At that time they were unable to establish proof of Moses Ball's parentage.

However, soon afterward, when the booklet had gone to press, Mrs. C. W. Stetson (of Arlington, Va.) mailed them a copy of a document that provided the needed proof that Moses' father was John Ball.

About the same time the two Virginia authors were contaced by Mr. James E. Ball, of Redmesa, Colorado, who had already established proof that the parents of Moses Ball were John Ball of Stafford Co., Va. and Winifred Williams, (daughter of William Williams). The research of the Colorado genealogist had been a continuation of work carried on by his father, Elihu K. Ball, for approximately fifty years. With the assistance of his twin sister, Mrs. Estella Mae (Ball) Brady, James E. Ball resumed the research with vigor and enthusiasm.

After 1933 Palmer R. Ball gave up genealogy because of business pressure, and Mrs. Surface because of ill health. It was at this point that the wife (Bonnie S. Ball) came to the rescue. She assumed responsibility for all correspondence and further research, which she has continued for almost twenty-eight years (1961). Duplicates of important data were forwarded to Mr. Ball in Colorado, who shared his findings with her.

In the late 1940's James E. Ball came to Southwestern Virginia with the intention of completing his final research for a revised Ball Genealogy, but, due to his untimely passing in 1951, the task was left uncompleted.

Now, after a decade, we endeavor to bring to those who are interested in the Ball family of Stafford and Fairfax Counties of Virginia the fruits of past labor, which, if summed up in a total number of years spent, would amount to almost a century of scaling the trunk, through thousands of branches of a family tree.

As additional features, we are including some of the allied families who have inter-married with the Ball family; also brief records of unidentified Balls who are still searching for their Ball ancestors. These have been received in correspondence throughout the past three decades, and their appearance here may help to identify them with the proper Ball line.

We cannot promise to reply to all letters concerning what is found in this volume, but will do so when possible (if stamped, addressed envelopes are enclosed. Letters in the form of questionnaires will naturally receive priority.)

While we have made every reasonable effort to eliminate errors, it is unwise to claim that the material is flawless. In some instances those who provide data err without intention of doing so. It is impossible for one who has never attempted to compile a genealogy to conceive of the problems one encounters in securing accurate records, and arranging them in the proper order. We trust, though, that this volume will serve its purpose--to provide a satisfactory genealogy for the Balls of the present generation, and posterity.

So we bring you the tribe of one John Ball--
Big ones, small ones, short, and tall;
Rich ones, poor ones--God's creatures all.

Those who bear the name of Ball have every right to be proud. In the following genealogy you will find the number of descendants of one man, John Ball, running into the thousands. As you follow their individual records you may realize that there were numerous contributions, not only of genius and success in industry, but of love, honor, loyalty, sacrifice, and service --to home, family community, country, and GOD.

JOHN BALL

John Ball was born ca. 1670-75. He lived in Stafford County, Va., and died ca. 1742. He patented 221 acres of land on the north branch of Little Hunting Creek. (Northern Neck Land Grants -2:188). He also bought 343 acres from Robert Brent, executor of Nicholas Brent, on the north side of Hunting Creek. (Deed lease and re-lease dated July 11, 1715; recital in first Fairfax County Survey Book, Page 25).

John Ball removed to Hunting Creek soon after the purchase, and left a will proved in the County Court of Stafford, as shown by the index. The book in which it was recorded (Liber K), covering period 1721 to 1730, is missing.

This John Ball was the father of Moses Ball. (Four Mile-Run Land Grants, by Stetson.) a deed from John Minor to Thomas Shaw, recorded in the Fairfax County records (Deed Book G, Page 1960), established proof of this relationship. It was dated 1767, after John's death.

Moses Ball deposed in two suits over the Western Boundary line of the Housing Patent concerning his parentage and family, in records that have been preserved. In the suit of Alexander vs. Birch he stated that he was a son of John Ball, that he had lived all his life till 1741 on Hunting Creek "about a half a mile above the ford, or crossing place". From then until 1755 he had lived on the Potomac River eight miles from the ford. Stetson stated that this place was known to have been called Glencarlynn Plateau.

John, the father of Moses Ball, is not to be confused with a contemporary John Ball who received a patent of land on the south side of Four Mile-Run in the 1740's, and who was a neighbor of Moses Ball. According to Mr. Stetson, their relationship is unknown, but they were probably "distant cousins". The latter John Ball's wife was Elizabeth Ball. They had no sons, but five daughters: (1) Stacy-m. John Dowdall; (2) Mary-m. Moses Hardin; (3) Milly-m. William Thompson; (4) Winifred-m. John Rallings; (5) _____ (?) -m. James Gray.

Moses Ball (1717-1792), was acting executor of this John Ball's estate after his death in 1766. His widow, Elizabeth Ball, was still on the land in 1792.

John Ball (1) m. Winifred Williams, daughter of William Williams. (Charles Co., Md. Book F, No. 2, page 56) March 9, 1714.

8. Ann Ball b. c. 1719; m. Samuel Hawes, Feb. 16, 1748.
9. James Ball b.; m. Catherine ?
d. 1783. He was a lieutenant in the Revolutionary War. According to Land Bounty records he was a younger brother of Moses, whose heirs received shares of said land bounty through court orders. (Revolutionary Soldiers of Virginia, 1776-by Burgess, Vol. 1, p. 129.)

"Executive Department, April 6, 1833---. The heirs of James Ball are allowed land bounty for his services as a lieutenant in the Continental Line for three years, if not heretofore drawn."

"John Floyd, Governor."

"Personally appeared before David Dulaney, J. of P., Charles Broadwater, who deposed that he knew James Ball; that he heard and believed that he was the brother of Moses Ball...."

Signed and sworn to June 28, 1835. At the same court, 14th of March, 1835, it was ordered to be certified that James who is said to have been an officer in the Revolutionary War, died about the year 1783; that Moses Ball of Fairfax Co., was his elder brother and heir; that Moses Ball died in the year 1792, testate, but intestate as to the estate of his brother, James Ball". (referring, of course to the land bounty).

"Copy teste. F. W. Richardson, Clerk, Fairfax Co., Va."

MOSES BALL

Moses Ball (John), patented 91 acres of land, a narrow strip (of Land) between the line of "the other John Ball" on the north, Simon Pearson on the south, and others. (including Gen. Washington). The grant was made to Moses Ball by Lord Fairfax (in Northern Neck Land Grants, Book F, p. 288, in State Land Office at Richmond, Va.) in 1748. It included what was known as the Glencarlyn Plateau. He did not live on the land until 1755, and supposedly lived in the area of Great Hunting Creek before moving to Four-Mile Run.

(3) John Ball m. M. W. 1728

He was mentioned in the diary of George Washington. His house is thought to have stood just south of a barn owned by Oliver H. King (in 1930's), which is near the center of Moses Ball's elongated farm. There was an old mill on his land; also one on the land of the other John Ball. Moses was buried at, or near, Clarendon, in the Ball Burying Ground (from a sign at Glencarlyn Post Office.) His grave is unmarked.

In 1789 Moses Ball was forced by circumstances to mortgage his land to William Wilson (Fairfax Deed Book, Liber 5, Folio 10). The will of Moses (Book F, p. 176) in 1786 gave his son, John, the eastern 25 acres of his farm. The rest he gave to his wife, Ann, for the remainder of her life, then, after her demise, to surviving children. He specified that the ten pounds due General Washington were to be paid out of his estate (and may have been paid before his death in 1792). He named his son, John, and Joseph Birch executors.

The land passed out of the family in 1818 as the result of a suit filed in Chancery Court of Fairfax Co., when it was sold to Richard Kirby. (Four-Mile-Run Land Grants-Stetson). The children of Moses and Ann were:

16. John Ball b. July 25, 1746; d. Dec. 14, 1814; m. Mary Ann Thrift. Of whom hereafter.

MOSES BALL

Moses- (Moses-John), b. ca. 1748; d. 1831-2; d. 1831-2; m. Mary Ann Hardin (Harden, Harding, etc.), (See section on Hardin Family) called "Molly"; m. ca. 1770. His name appears in the Fairfax tax records of 1791. This is the last proven record of him until 1797, when he purchased two hundred acres of land near Brown's Mountain, on Beech Creek, Hawkins Co., Tenn. from Samuel Curry. The will of Moses Ball (17) was written (or signed) by him on Dec. 13, 1831, in Hawkins Co.; witnessed by Reuben Barnard, Jesse Ball, John Ball, and James Tunnell--the last a son-in-law, the others probably sons, grandsons, or relatives. The children of Moses Ball, as taken from the will and Land Bounty warrant, are not listed in order of birth. They were:

32. Robert Ball b. March 25, 1780; d. Oct. 29, 1845; m. Mary Straus, b. August 23, 1785. (This information was given to Mrs. L. W. Ledgerwood, Jr. (Tulsa, Okla.) by Mr. Dennis Ball, of Evarts, Ky.) Of whom hereafter.

GEORGE BALL

George..(Moses-John), b. Fairfax (or Alexandria Co.), Va. It is not definitely known when he left Fairfax Co., but it was evidently in the 1790's. He was next heard of at New Garden section of Russell Co., Va. He m. Elizabeth Tunnell (See section on Tunnell Family), probably in the 1770's, and d. in Russell Co. before 1839, when his children were listed as heirs of Lt. James Ball in the Land Bounty Record in Fairfax Co. = d. ca. 1839

(Note: This George Ball has in the past been confused with a contemporary George Ball who came, also from Fairfax Co., Va. prior to 1800, to an area of Va. (or Tenn.) near Bristol, where his wife was supposedly killed by Indians. Afterward he moved with his children to Ball's Bridge, in Lee Co., Va. (Rose Hill, Va.). It is believed that he may have been a cousin of George Ball (19), who settled in Russell Co., Va., and a son of one of Moses Ball's (7) brothers. The Lee County settler, George Ball, was apparently a Revolutionary soldier, while we have no record of George (19) having participated in the Revolution.) Children of George and Elizabeth (Tunnell) Ball:

45. Moses Ball b. Fairfax Co., Va. ca. 1785; P
d. in Pike Co., Ky., 1866; m. Elizabeth
(Betsey) Maynard (Manor). My chart says 1839

(Note: Again, there has been much confusion in the past publications concerning Moses, the son of George. In THE BALL FAMILY OF SOUTH-WEST VIRGINIA, by Palmer R. Ball and Nancy Graves (Ball) Surface, this Moses Ball had not been located, so it was assumed that he was the Moses Ball who m. Elizabeth Yeary in Lee Co., Va.. However, this was disproved when (Mr. William W. Hoskins, of Bluefield, W. Va., found documents in Pike Co., Ky., that proved that he m. Elizabeth Maynard, and remained in Pike Co., Ky., where many of his descendants still live.) Of whom hereafter.

ROBERT BALL, JR. m. Elizabeth Elwood (F-10)

82. Robert Ball Jr. - (Robert-John-Moses-John) Robert Ball, Jr., is said to have been farm manager for George (Washington) Parke Custis for many years. His Bible was owned by a great-granddaughter who later gave it to a grandson of her brother. Most of his letters and personal belongings were given to Arlington Mansion, by his daughter Mamie Hyatt, before she died. (Many letters pertaining to the estate). Robert Ball's portrait, in his Masonic regalia, was stolen by the Yankees during the War Between the States, and was taken to Ohio, where it is now owned by a Masonic Lodge. There is a tradition that the daughter, Mamie, received a letter (from either the person who took the portrait, or the lodge that has it) inquiring if she wished to buy it. She immediately replied, asking them to burn it, because she wanted her hands on nothing that had been stolen by the Yankees! It is presumed that the portrait is still in possession of the Masonic Lodge in Ohio. Children of Robert and Ann (Thrift) Ball are:

Wesley had become partially deaf, due to quinine treatments that had been used for malaria.

His family Bible is still in tact, and in possession of his daughter, Mrs. George Seymour (1954). (Weatherford, Texas).

They returned to Lee Co., Va. to care for his ailing mother. Va.). About 1932 he met Mr. John J. Weatherly, of Alabama, and Atlanta, who was the inspiration for the little booklet, "THE BALL FAMILY OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA", published by his son, Palmer R. Ball, in 1933.

George united with the Methodist Church soon after his marriage to Dora Ellison, the daughter of a Methodist minister, Rev. L. W. Ellison, and Mary (Snavelly) Ellison. (She was a descendant of the Balls who first settled at Ball's Bridge (or Rose Hill, Va.) through the Yeary-Snavelly lines.) About 1918 her health became so poor that she became a partial invalid. However, she retained her interest in her family, Church, and neighbors. She did much reading, and often expressed beautiful ideas in verse. Below is one of the many poems she wrote, few of which have ever been published. Despite the fact that she was compelled to move about in a wheel chair, she assisted with the care of her husband throughout his long illness in 1948-50. He is buried in the Poteet Cemetery three miles east of Jonesville, Lee Co., Va. She d. Jan. 31, 1960, at Coeburn, Va.; and is buried near a little grandson in Cecil Cemetery, Pennington Gap, Va.

GOD'S WILL

Are you sadly depressed by a vague unrest?
Have you drained your cup of woe?
We are often blessed by the soul's sad test--
God may will it so.

For the crosses we bear, and the losses we share
Our richest blessing brings;
Though the clouds hang low, sometimes we know
'Tis the shadow of His wings.

--Dorothy Ellison Ball.

AGENT J. G. Weatherly, Thomas, Ala., is still actively on the job, despite his fifty-seven years, of continuous service, with the Southern, and predecessor lines. The accompanying photograph was made a few days ago in his seventy-eighth year. Recent articles appearing in the Bulletin relating to events and people connected with the lines now composing the Southern Railruary 9, 1877, by the Selma, Rome & Dalton R. R., fifty years ago. The other pass was issued July 30, 1882, by the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad. It is doubtful if there is another employee now regularly at work every day who can furnish such concrete evidence that he was employed in the same capacity fifty-two years ago.

Mr. Weatherly was born on September 9, 1850, and first entered the service in December, 1866, as a bridge laborer at Mumford, Ala., on the S. R. & D. Railroad, now the Mobile Division. He resigned in 1870 to attend school and study telegraphy and re-entered the service of the S. R. & D. March 1, 1873, as telegraph operator and agent, having been transferred in 1892 to the Georgia Pacific, now the Birmingham Division. He is now joint agent for the Southern and A. G. S. at Thomas, Ala. His health is good and he states he handles "a pretty good volume of business for a person nearing his seventy-eighth year."

town of Bountiful, Colo. One of his daughters described him as a "man of humility and great faith". She related a story about a day when her father returned from his field of ripening wheat, which was the family's only source of bread, and asked them to kneel in prayer, as he urgently implored the Lord to spare their wheat crop, that was in the path of an approaching and violent hail storm.

Almost immediately the storm divided (as the waters of the ancient Red Sea). One black cloud passed to the right of the wheat field, and the other to the left. Thus the wheat crop was saved for a grateful family.

Elihu moved to Conejos Co., Colo., with his family, whom he baptised into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was a Patriarch for the Church for over thirty-five years.

Another daughter said of her parents: "I received teachings of the Gospel from my father and mother....". Still another daughter said: "We were taught the principles of the Gospel, and to be honest in all our dealings; to have our word as good as our bond; and never waste material things."

About 1913 the family moved from Bountiful, Colo. to Oxford, (Colo.), as Minta's physician had advised her to leave the higher altitude, and find a lower location.

About 1918 they moved to Redmesa, LaPlata Co., Colorado. Elihu spent much of his spare time carrying on research on the Ball family for about fifty years, during which time he uncovered records of descendants in his native Russell County, Va. and various counties of Southwest Virginia, Eastern Kentucky, East Tennessee, West Virginia, and other states. They had eleven children:

Ball.

FAY BRADY (SLADE)

Fay - (Estella M. - Elihu K. - John T. - John-George-Moses-John) b. July 21, 1913, Manassa, Colo. (Conejos Co.); christened Oct. 2, 1913 by Elihu K. Ball; m. Victor Arnold Slade, Jan. 2, 1934, at the Salt Lake Temple.

Victor is a son of James McGaw and Agnes (Burnham) Slade. Both are teachers. He is also a licensed electrician and sells for Preferred Risk Automobile Insurance Co. They have no children of their own by natural birth, but have adopted ten homeless children who were in great need. Quoting Mrs. Fay Slade: "We heard Judge Terry of Provo, Utah give a talk on children who were in desperate need of homes and families. We had never had the privilege of having a family of our own, so we immediately put in our application. To our surprised delight we received a call from the department, telling us of a two-and -a-half-year-old boy who needed a home. When Allen came he was so badly undernourished he couldn't walk or talk. He had a bad case of rickets, then came down with the measles, mumps, and whooping cough--all within two weeks. Even though the family despaired of his life, he is now well and strong. He graduated from High School May 25, 1961".

Mrs. Slade has presented a beautiful narrative describing the heart-rending circumstances under which they adopted each of their ten children, and it should be placed in print where every negligent and irresponsible parent should be compelled to read it, or see it enacted on the screen. Their wise and loving parenthood will bear testimony in the biographical sketches of the children they have reared.

Both Victor and Fay have served as missionaries for their church in the Northwest Mission. She served twice as President of the Relief Society Organization, and also as President of the Primary Children's Organization. Victor has served in the Bishopric of two wards, and has been called to the Grant Stake Mission Presidency. Their children:

THE LITTLE RED PHONE

The world was busy with every day care,
There was no one to notice a child with tears in her hair.

No one to smile, no one to cheer;
No one to notice a youngster's fear.

On the deathbed, her daddy lay,
Pale as the snow with nothing to say.
Her mother was crying as the agony grew,
But what could a child say, when no one knew?

Without any word, the child sought
The little red telephone her daddy bought.
She dialed the number her daddy said
Would find her the Master and Almighty Head.

Dialing the number with a little sure finger,
She started to speak, not a moment to linger.
"Hello, God." She said with a tear in her eye,
"I've got a problem!" She whispered, beginning to cry.

"Please save my daddy! He's a wonderful man.
Oh please God, do everything you can.
He doesn't want to die, 'cause I know--
Just this morning he told me so!"

When a tear fell upon the little red phone,
It was a toy no more, for it glistened and shone.
So bright did it gleam, so bright did it shine,
That the little girl started to whimper and whine.

"Please, God, don't let my daddy die."
The little girl whimpered, once more starting to
to cry.

"Please save my daddy. I love him so!"
....Her daddy knew....but who else was to know?

Handling the receiver with tender care,
The little girl knew that someone was there.
"Cry no more my child!" A voice was heard.
"Be happy again, and sing like a bird.
Your daddy is well; you dialed right!"
The little girl smiled, she had no plight.

The world was busy with every day care,

LaVere Elihu Brady 246

For there was no one to notice a child smiling there.
No one to smile, no one to cheer;
No need to remember a youngster's fear.

ALLIED FAMILIES

Brasseur, Brassier, Brashear, Brashears,
Brasher, Brazier

(For further details, see THE BRASHEAR STORY:
A FAMILY HISTORY-- by Troy L. Back)

John or Jean Brassier was the first known ancestor of the family of DeBrassier, originally from the diocese of Reims, Vennaissin Co., France in about 1440. He was a gentleman of the city of Pernes, France who followed Geofry de Maingre Boucicant, brother of Merechael de Boucicant when he beseiged the Anti-Pope Benedict at Avignon and who at the 15th century settled in the Province where his descendents have perpetuated themselves and from whom have descended different branches of this house such as:

1. The Lords and Marquises of Jocas residing at Carpentras.

2. The branch of Brassier de la Plane direct issue in the second degree of the preceding one settled in Roemque and became extinct in the ninth degree of the family of Bernard Brassier, Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost of Montpelier in 1696.

3. The first branch of Brassier de Saint Simon actually domiciled in the ancient province of Roerque. The branch of Jocas is the oldest and from which all three other branches, have issued; in the different provices where it had its residence in France as well as Germany, this house has always been allied with the most noble and ancient families.

1. Benois Brasseuir and his brother, Robert, French Huguenots, landed in Va. in 1653. They moved to Maryland in 1658 and established residence in Calvert Co. where Benois was commissioned a Justice in 1661 for the County. In 1662 Benois was naturalized as a former citizen of France and his name was anglicized as Benjamin Brashears. He died in 1663. After his death his wife, Mary Brashears had a pre-nuptial contract with Thomas Starling, at the same time recording her will and naming all her children by her deceased husband as follows:

2. Robert Brashears b. ca. 1640, of Calvert Co. Md. d. 1712 in Prince George Co., Md. (.Ball line of descent from the Brashear Family.)

3. Benjamin Brashears b. ca. 1642, of Calvert Co. Md. d. 1675, unmarried.

4. John Brashears b. ca. 1644, of Calvert Co. Md; m. Ann.

5. Mary Brashears b. ca. 1646, of Calvert Co. Md.; m. Harry Kent, Jr.

6. Ann Brashears b. ca. 1648, of Calvert Co. Md.

7. Sussanna Brashears b. ca. 1650, of Calvert Co. m.

8. Martha Brashears b. ca. 1652, of Calvert Co. Md.

9. Elizabeth Brashears b. ca. 1654, of Calvert Co. Md.

Robert died without issue in about 1665 so Benjamin became the progenitor of the Brashear family in the United States of America, each generation using a different spelling of their French surname of "Brasseuir" meaning "Lord of the Arm" or "Master by right of strength". The Maryland family of Brashears grew quite numerous spreading into the different counties of the state from the old home place known as "Brashears Purchase" upon the Patuxent river. "The Brashears" was a station for many years of one or more early stage lines. In 1825 Gen. Lafayette dined at this house while on his way from Washington to Pennsylvania. This old house built of stone is still standing. An extract from the Albany Evening News, page 61, dated March 12, 1925 stated "The Pointed Firs", Brashear home at Castlelon-on-the-land and located at upper Malboro, capitol of Prince Georges Co. Md., where Benois (Benjamin) Brashears was granted letters of denization (naturalization papers) by Cecil Calvert (Lord Baltimore) in 1662. In 1790 when the first census of Maryland was taken there were 25 of the Brashears names listed as "householders" with their families and slaves. Some later moved into Pa., Va., Ky., So. C. and perhaps other states.

Benois (Benjamin) had a patent of land of 300 acres at the head of Indian Creek, a branch of the Western Branch of Nansemond River, Maryland. (Patent 4-12-1653, Valentine Papers - Vol. 1, page 40.) Benois and Mary had their will probated in May 25, 1663. (Vol. 3 p. 225)

HARDING - HARDIN - HARDEN

At the massacre of St. Bartholomew in France, the three Hardin brothers being Huguenots, emigrated to Canada, but the climate was too severe so they left and went to Virginia which was at that time a British colony. Two of them settled in Va., while the third brother continued on to So. Carolina, where in the eighteenth century this area was settled by French Huguenots who upon some disagreement, dispersed themselves up and down the country leaving Manakintown, their home in Va. Their French names, variously and strangely spelled appear in land grants and county records. Their land lay on the lower side of Cedar Run just south of Brent Town Tract of 30,000 acres. (Prince William Co. Records.)

From the Stafford Co., Ca. deed book, no. 2, Nov. 1726, mention is made of a lease between Joseph Allen of Overwharton Parish and Henry Harden for one hundred acres--Consideration of 5,000 lbs. of good, sound, merchantable tobacco land on the east side of Elkrum, being a part of a tract of land taken up and patented by the late William Allen bearing the date of March 14, 1718 from Proprietors office of the Northern Neck of Henry Harden and his brother, Mark, settled in the colony of Va., while the other brother went on into So. Carolina. Mark died abt. 1734 of Prince William Co., Va. (Record of Wills). No will of Henry Harden has been found but a record of Inventory of estate of Henry Harden dated 1737 is preserved. (Kentucky Politicians, Ky. Historical Society, Frankfort, Ky.).

THE HONAKER FAMILY

According to records of the American Genealogical Society, the immigrant ancestor of the Honaker family is thought to have been Hans Jacob Honnegar, of German, but authority for the statement is not given. We know that the Honakers were in Southwestern Virginia by the early 1800's, and possibly earlier.

THE SHUMATE FAMILY

The Shumate family was originally French Huguenot, and when they came to Virginia before 1720 the name was de la Shumate. The earliest known record of Shumates in America is found in Stafford County, Va., when Jean de la Shumate bought 200 acres of land from William Allen in 1723. Most Stafford Co. records have been destroyed, so research there is difficult. However, we know that the Shumates lived on a stream known as Elk Run, and their land was in what is now the southeast part of Fauquier County, near the junction of Stafford and Prince William Countries.

Jean de la Shumate, the immigrant, apparently had at least two sons: Daniel b. ca. 1715 in France (Probably the one whose inventory was made in Fauquier Co. in 1785); and Jean, whose will was made in Fauquier Co. May 19, 1783. This Jean (John) Shumate m. Judith Bayley before 1750, in Fauquier Co. Their children were: William, John, Joshua, Daniel, Thomas, James, Bailey, Lettice, and Jemima.

The early de la Shumates were neighbors of Mark Hardin, also a French Huguenot who came from Rouen, France ca. 1706, and we find their names together on early deeds, wills, etc. Since the name Hardin Shumate was a common one, and the name Mark, is used by Hardins and Shumates, also, it is possible that there was an intermarriage between the families.

About 1770 the name was shortened to Shumate. After the Revolution many Shumates migrated to other Virginia counties, and some even moved to South Carolina.

The earliest Shumate of the branch that is allied with the Ball family, of whom there is positive proof, is Bayless Shumate, b. ca. 1786 in Virginia. (The name is spelled variously: Vales, Bailis, Balias, Baliss, and Bayles.) It seems likely that he was a son of Mark Shumate, whose will dated July 29, 1838, was made in Caliburne Co., Tenn., in which he named his wife, Deborah, and daughters: Mary, Susan C., Sally Martin, Judith Harris, Elizabeth, and Patcey; also his sons: Bales, John, Daniel, William, Demarcus, Thomas, and Hardin.

Bayliss Shumate m. (1) Mary (Polly) Turner, dau. of William Turner and Susannah Bailey. They had two sons: William and Mark H. Shumate. (The latter moved to Cass Co., Mo.) In 1817 Bayless and family were living in Lee Co., Va., but apparently had lived in Kentucky earlier, then back to Ky. The 1830 Harland Co., Ky. census lists him between ages 40 and 50, and without a wife, who had probably died before 1830. Family tradition has it that she drowned while attempting to cross a swollen stream to see a sister's sick child.

On Oct. 13, 1833 Bayliss (Balis) Shumate m. (2) Mary (Polly) Hendrickson, a widow of Thomas Hendrickson, in Ky. This wife accompanied him to Madison Co., Ark. about 1846. The records show that he bought land in the Richland Township that year. He was still in Madison Co. at the time of the 1850 census, but soon afterward, he moved to Washington Co., Ark., where he bought the land known as the Eads Farm, near Durham. Later he bought the "Shively" farm, near Harris, Ark.; and, according to a great-granddaughter, he is buried in one of the two unmarked graves on that farm.

Bayless Shumate valued his real estate at $3000 in the 1850 census report, which was a considerable sum at that time. He also brought Negro slaves with him to Arkansa, according to tradition.

The son of Bayliss Shumate through whom certain descendants of Bennett Ball are descended was William Shumate--b. Nov. 21, 1813, Ky.; d. Jan. 12, 1877. He was m. to Sarah (Sally) Ball, April 7, 1832. Sarah was a dau. of Bennett Ball and Nancy (Bailey) Ball, of Harland Co. Ky. Sarah was b.

Dec. 22, 1817 (or possibly 1812, according to census reports; she d. Mar. 12, 1901, in Ark.

In 1837 several families migrated together in a rather large colony from Harlan Co., Ky. to Madison Co., Ark., where they settled in what was known as Richland Township. These families included those of: Bailey, Bob Reeves, Samuel Heriman, and Bennett Ball (#37). For further details on this family read the records of Bennett Ball (#37), and those of his daughter, Sarah; or contact Mrs. L. W. Ledgerwood, Jr. --International Petroleum Co.; Talara, Perus, South America.

THE CREECH FAMILY

We have little in the way of authentic records on the early Creech family of Harlan Co., Ky. However, it is said that one Sarah Creech married Charles Blair in Harlan Co., Ky. Feb. 15, 1808. Their Great-Great Grandson, C.R. Blair, lives at 707 So. Belgrade Rd.; Silver Springs, Md., and is believed to have quite a bit of information on the Creech and Blair families. Mrs. Carl A. Stevason (1760 Kessler Blvd.; South Bend 16, Indiana) also has data on the Creech family of Harland County, Ky.

THE LOCKHART FAMILY

In EARLY VIRGINIA MARRIAGES, by Crozier, we find Randall Lockhart who was m. in Augusta Co., Va. in 1760, but only the groom's name is given. In 1770, on Dec. 5, Pat Lockhart's marriage is listed.

James Lockhart was a justice of Augusta Court in 1751. He had a dau. named Mary who m. Sampson Matthews - (1737-1807).

Philip Lockhart was a Revolutionary petitioner from Bedford Co., Va. (according to Mrs. W. L. Hutchinson; 2323 Lidstone-Houston 23, Texas).

William Lockhart owned a tract of 215 acres of land on the middle fork of Holston River, survey dated Jan. 24, 1774.

Patrick Lockhart is listed in THE ANNALS OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA (1746-1786), in Capt. Rowland's frontier co. of Fincastle Co., Va., 1776.

Jacob Lockhart was one of the signers of the Greenbrier Co. (Va.) Legislative Petition.

John Lockhart and Mary Wiley were m. Oct. 27, 1790, in Culpepper Co., Va. p. 64.

In MARRIAGES OF MONTGOMERY AND FINCASTLE COUNTIES, VA. -- William Lockhart and Jean Waggoner were m. June 15, 1786.

In Rockingham Co., Va.; Jno. Lockard m. Elizabeth Bryant - 1791.

In Tazewell Co., Va.:

Joseph Harrison m. Rachel Lockhart -- May 15, 1801.
 Robert Pritchett and Charity Lockhart -- Nov. 5, 1801.

Daniel Lockhart and Polly Ward -- July 8, 1805.

TAZEWELL CO., VA. WILL BOOK I

1816: Andrew Lockhart: wife--Mary; Children:
Sarah McGuire, William Lockhart, James Lockhart,
Polly McGuire, Jane Belcher, Daniel Lockhart.
(This is believed to have been the Daniel Lockhart who m. Charity Beshears, and settled later in Lee Co., Va.).

Performing marriage rites in Tazewell Co.,
Va. 1800-1853, Bird Lockhart. The name, Bird, has appeared more than once among the Lee County Lockharts, which indicates that Andrew and Bird may have been brothers.

The 1860 Census of Lee Co., Va. shows
Daniel with seven children, but no wife. It is likely that Charity (Beshears) either d. before 1860, or was his second wife.

Children of Daniel Lockhart at home in 1860:
a. Vashti b. ca. 1837, Lee Co., Va.
b. Martha L. b. ca. 1841, Lee Co., Va.
c. Elvira b. 1842-3. m. Jonathan K. Ball (second wife).
d. Emaline b. ca. 1844, Lee Co., Va.
e. Bartheny b. ca. 1846, Lee Co., Va.
f. James B. b. ca. 1849, Lee Co., Va.
g. Mary M. b. ca. 1850, Lee Co., Va.

There was also an Andrew Lockhart (b. ca.
1809 in Tazewell Co., Va.), living in Lee Co., Va. in 1860. His wife was Mary A. Lockhart b. in Washington Co., Va. Their children were: Squire
J.; Phebe; Burnetta; Putnam; David; Jane; Elizabeth; Steel; Andrew; Emmett; and Mary. This Andrew may have been a son of Daniel by a first wife.

There are records of Lockharts in other states.
At least one is listed in early Kentucky land grants.
The Lockharts of Russell County, Va. are in all probability of the Tazewell Co., Va. branch, which apparently came from Augusta, Culpepper, or one of the eastern counties. Since the name William is so often used by them they are possibly descended from William Lockhart who settled on Middle Fork of Holston in 1774. The name is probably of German origin.

Mr. A Page Lockard: (1306 'T' Street S.E.; Washington, D.C.) has given some data on the Lock(h)arts of what is now West Virginia, who are largely descended from Thomas Lock(h)art, who m. Peggy Flesher, 1818--Lewis Co., Va. (W.Va.). For further details write to him.

"Prestonburg, Ky.
March 11, 1934

"Dear Mrs. Ball:

My father-in-law's name is James Ball, and he came from Lebanon, Russell Co., Va., when he was about 20 years old. He is now 69 years. His father's name was George Ball, and his grandfather's name was Johnnie Ball from Hopkins (?) County, Tenn. He had a brother, Moses, a brother Clinton, and a brother Green. This, he says, is about all he knows about the Ball generation; except "one-armed Jim", and Charlie are his first cousins. He says, too, that he had an uncle, Arch Ball.

Mrs. J.E. Ball"

JAMES BALL (Of Ireland)

Mr. Roy Hutton Ball, an Oklahoma City, Oklahoma attorney, published "Conquering the Frontier", a few years ago. This book contained the history of James Ball, a Revolutionary soldier from Hampshire Co., Va., and his descendants. This James Ball was thought to have come from Dublin, Ireland with a cousin, Richard Ball, between 1763 and 1770. Richard was a sailor, and James still in his teens. He first settled in Culpepper Co., Va., later migrating to Hampshire Co., Va. (now W. Va.). He m. Margaret Gray in Hampshire Co. in 1771, or 1772. He served with Capt. Vause's Co. 12th Va. The family later lived in Owen Co., Ky. James and Margaret (Bray) Ball had a large family. CONQUERING THE FRONTIER can be found in most (or all) state libraries.

The Balls of Wilkes County, N.C.

More than a decade ago Mr. James E. Ball came into possession of data on one John Ball of Wilkes Co., N.C., whom he believed to have been John, the son of Moses B ll of Hawkins Co., Tenn. However, since that time Mrs. B.A. Tucker, of London, Ky., who is a descendant of John Ball, son of Moses (17), has produced evidence that Moses' son, John, who married Patience Dalton, remained in Hawkins Co., Tenn., where he reared his family. This is also "born out" in the statement made by Mrs. Carrie Ball Francisco some years ago.

We are including some genealogy on this Ball family in our unidentified Ball lines in the hope that it may be further traced, and identified with an immigrant ancestor. If further details are wanted on this family the reader may contact Mr. Elden Ball; 1568 Parkway Ave.; Salt Lake City 6, Utah. Mr. Ball has compiled a most interesting sketch on this line of Balls. We also have data on this line from Mrs. J. W. Ball Rt. 3, Box 90; North Wilkesboro, N.C.; also from Mr. M.H. Cates 6354 Marquita Ave.; Dallas 14, Texas.

From James E. Ball M.S.:

"The following record, presumed to be descendants of John Ball (No. 23), of above record, (son of Moses Ball, Jr.) arrived too late to be arranged chronologically with above record. We hope to be able to verify and get a more complete record of all the posterity of John Ball for our next issue. We are indebted to Mr. Jas. C. Ball of Idaho Falls, for this data."
